

100% of the net proceeds will benefit your neighbors-in-need residing in the Irmo, St. Andrews and Ballentine communities.

Established in 1984, Sharing God's Love has faithfully provided thousands of families with food, clothing, personal hygiene items and financial aid for utility, medical and other emergency expenses. During 2013, 2,290 families, totaling 6,730 people, including 470 new clients received assistance at an estimated value of $694,591.81. The supplies and funds are donated by caring churches, businesses, individuals and groups.

Sharing God's Love is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization and a portion of your tournament fee and all of your contributions are deductible.

Thank you for your support.
