

100% of the net proceeds will benefit your neighbors-in-need residing in the Irmo, St. Andrews and Ballentine communities.

Established in 1984, Sharing God's Love has faithfully provided thousands of families with food, clothing, personal hygiene items and financial aid for utility, medical and other emergency expenses. During 2015, 2,171 families, totalling 6,177 people, including 486 new clients received assistance valued at $1,192,084. The supplies and funds are donated by caring churches, businesses, individuals and groups.

Sharing God's Love is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization and a portion of your tournament fee and all of your contributions are deductible.

Thank you for your support.
